

WMD Incident Management Unified Command for CBRNE Terrorism Incidents

Please join us April 29th, 30th, and May 1st for the Incident Management/Unified Command for Terrorism and CBRNE Incidents. A Department of Homeland Security course MGT 313 from Texas Engineering Extension Service (TEEX).

Time: 8:00am-4:30pm

Where: Highlands Ranch Law Enforcement Training Facility—9008 N Hwy 85, Littleton, CO 80125

Continental Breakfast to be served all 3 days.

Please RSVP before April 10th to Windy at Douglas County Office of Emergency Management
Email: wrodgers@dcsheriff.net or Phone: 303-660-7589

This is a 3 day course intended to assist in a multi-discipline response to a complex incident using a Unified Command structure. It focuses on using All Hazards command and management used in the National Incident Management System (NIMS). There will be table top and hands-on exercise.

Target Audience: Supervisory personnel in Law Enforcement, Fire, EMS (or hospital), Emergency Mgt, HazMat, Public Works, Public Health, and/or Emergency Response, Support, volunteer personnel.

Prerequisites: NIMS/ICS training, I-100, I-200, I-700, or equivalent. Preferred WMD-006a Incident Management/Unified Command Concepts found at <http://teexwmdcampus.com> (free online course). Any accredited WMD Awareness Level course.

It is presumed that you will or have completed the prerequisites prior to this training.